"We're leaving together. But still it's farewell!"

✂ ✂ GRAPE VARIETIES

100% Old vines Monastrell.

✂ ✂ VINEYARDS

Poor, stony and clay soils situated at 600-700 metres altitude, in the mountains of Terres dels Alforins. The vines are more than 35 years old and produce low yields per hectare. We practice sustainable grape-growing and respect the environment.

✂ ✂ WINE AGING

9 months in French and American oak barrels.

✂ ✂ WINEMAKER'S NOTES

ASPECT: Intense purple colour, violet rim and medium high intensity.

NOSE: Mature dark fruits, liquorice, Mediterranean plants, cocoa, and a toasted undertone.

MOUTH: Full mouth, potent with a long finish.

✂ ✂ PAIRING SUGGESTIONS

Pairs perfectly with our typical Mediterranean food like rice recipes and meat dishes, and improves with cool, interesting conversations.

The song was originally composed to start off concerts but one day someone put words to it, and it became a hit. It played all the time during the fall of the Berlin wall and is considered to be an anthem, besides being one of the songs with most versions in all styles of music, with mixes of reggae or disco.
